WINE OF THE MONTH

2012 Marsanne Museum Release, Tahlbilk, Nagambie Lakes, Australia

Glass £9

Carafe £ 24

Bottle £42

Established in 1860, Tahlbilk is an historic family-owned winery, renowned for their rare aged Marsanne. The estate has the world's largest single holding of the varietal and produces Marsanne from vines established in 1927, which are among the oldest in the world. Tahlbilk is known as 'tabilk tabilk' in the language of the Daungwurrung clans, which translates as the 'place of many waterholes'. It perfectly describes this premium viticultural landscape, which is located in the Nagambie Lakes region of Central Victoria. In 2016, Tahlbilk was awarded 'Winery of the Year' by James Halliday.

The complexity that comes with ages shines with lifted honeysuckle and toasty notes on the nose. The rich and honeyed palate is brimming with lemon citrus fruits and finishes with a chalky, mineral freshness
